Client Story*

Please give the true story of a client served this month by your programming. You may change identifying details. This allows us to connect to your programming on an emotional level.

GoodThe family of 4 needed help for their daughter to be counseled during COVID. Their young daughter had always been a little shy. It seems the stressors endured by the pandemic was creating anxiety at home and school. Through play therapy and stories, she learned coping strategies for stress, relaxation exercises, and replacing negative thoughts with positive thoughts. A final story she created was a testimony to her healing. It was about a monkey named Mr. Shy and his friend turtle named Mr. Happiness. The tale had elements of a sea voyage, struggles in the water, help from a new friend and a special jewel that could transport Mr. Shy and a fortune cookie that read "Good Luck on Your Adventure." Mr. Shy transported himself with the jewel but went back to Mr. Happiness for advice. Mr. Happiness "radiated all the happiness of the sea" and told Mr. Shy "I think you should go back home." Mr. Shy returned home and now felt happy. He felt so happy that he changed his name to Mr. Happiness.
